DEFENDANT GLORIA SGUROS'

MOTION TO DISMISS THE COMPLAINT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedures 8 and 12(b)(6), defendant Gloria Sgueros respectfully moves to dismiss the FDIC's Complaint for failure to state a claim. The grounds supporting this motion are set forth below and in part in the two memoranda of law filed on behalf of all other defendants as applicable.

1. The FDIC, as receiver for Broadway Bank, purports to allege claims for gross negligence (Count I) breach of fiduciary duty (Count II) and negligence (Count III) against former officer Sgueros, as well as against Broadway Bank's other former directors and officers.

2. None of the FDIC's claims against Sgueros is pled sufficiently to overcome the business judgment rule.

3. The gross negligence claim should be dismissed because the allegations of the Complaint fail to support a plausible inference that Sgueros' conduct as an officer was an extreme departure from due care.

4. Neither the common law negligence nor breach of fiduciary duty claim supports a plausible inference of actionable conduct.

5. The negligence and breach of fiduciary duty claims are also duplicative and Count II should be dismissed for that independent reason.

6. The FDIC assumed control over Broadway Bank and all of its books and records when it became Receiver upon the closing of the Bank in April 2010. Nonetheless, the FDIC is unable to plead sufficient facts that set forth a plausible inference of liability against Sgueros pursuant to Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007). Accordingly, Sgueros respectfully requests that the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, defendant Gloria Sgueros respectfully requests that the Court dismiss the FDIC's Complaint with prejudice.

Dated: June 20, 2012
